Light Opera Oklahoma is making sure Harold Hill gets out of town.

The company's production of "The Music Man," which opens in Tulsa on May 15, will be presented first in Claremore, with two performances this weekend at the Robson Performing Arts Center, 101 E. Stuart Roosa Ave.

Performances are at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Tickets are $20 and $25, and available through www.MyTicketOffice.com.

"The Music Man" is Meredith Willson's award-winning musical comedy about the fast-talking traveling salesman Harold Hill and how his plan to fleece the town of River City, Iowa, goes awry when he falls in love with the local librarian.
